

Precautions on Usage

Sumitomo Realty & Development Group

Upon usage of websites of each company of Sumitomo Realty & Development Group (the “Company Group”), please read the terms of use of the following information “About Cookies” and use upon consent. The terms of use of the Company websites and contents, etc. may be changed as necessary, so please confirm the contents whenever you use the sites.

About Cookies

For the purpose of providing better information and services to customers, the Company Group may, when a customer views websites of the Company Group or e-mail sent by the Company Group, acquire Cookie information of the devices such as computers used by the customer, by itself or through a service delegatee, and use it for improvement of convenience of the websites of the Company Group, statistic analysis regarding the usage situation of the websites of the Company Group, advertising, and the like. Cookies means text files recorded on the devices such as computers of the customer when a customer visits the website and computers can be identified by Cookies. Information to be acquired are limited to those related to the browsing of websites of the Company Group and your personal information will not be included. Functions of Cookies may be disabled by your browser settings but please understand that you may not be able to receive certain services of the Company Group in such case.